

CLUB
ALPIN
BELGE

Fédération francophone d'escalade, d'alpinisme et de randonnée.

JOB OFFER

Permanent contract

CLIMBING COACH (M/F)

The Belgian Alpine Club is looking to hire a person to ensure the coaching of its young athletes team in international competition as well as the follow-up of the athletes' training to the 2024 Olympic Games.

Send your CV and covering letter, before 20 February 2020 together with your application to (both): tijl@clubalpin.be and stephanie@clubalpin.be

The Belgian Alpine Club, French-speaking federation of climbing, mountaineering and hiking, is the sports federation responsible for the organisation of competitive climbing affiliated to the IFSC and the reference institution in French-speaking Belgium for all mountain sports, climbing, hiking, mountaineering and slackline.

WWW.CLUBALPIN.BE

THE IDEAL PROFILE

We know that the ideal does not exist ;-) would be someone :

- Passionate about high level climbing and international competitions,
- Having several years of experience in international competition,
- Having several years of experience in coaching,
- Degree in Physical Education or equivalent,
- Level 3 climbing coach or equivalent,
- With a good knowledge of sports psychology,
- Having a great natural empathy,
- Very constructive and positive, able to manage stress,
- Able to work effectively in interaction and collaboration with other passionate stakeholders,
- Willing to travel all over the world (including for several weeks),
- Able to work variable hours, intense periods of work, especially during weekends and holiday periods,
- Having a good knowledge of sports science research,
- With a category B driving licence,
- Having a good practice of French and English, knowledge of Dutch is useful.

THE JOB WILL MAINLY CONSIST OF :

- Coaching of the youth team for international competitions, training courses and federal trainings in collaboration with other actors such as physiotherapists, personal trainers and the Technical Director,
- Follow up on federal internships and training for BeGold athletes in close collaboration with Marco Jubes, Tijn Smits and other stakeholders,
- Contribute to building the dynamic of the federation, among others in the framework of the Core Team meetings, and in close collaboration with the athletes' coaches,
- Contribute to building the dynamic between clubs and federation at the level of detection and training of young people (depending on time and means).

WE PROPOSE

A permanent contract from April 2020. The salary and the budgets correspond to the French-speaking Belgian non-profit organisations context, more precisely to the CP 329.02.

A work as a self-employed person is possible.